RUSSIA AND JAPAN.

Frank R. Robertson to Give Illustrated Lecture on Subject.

Frank R. Robertson will give an illustrated lecture on Russia and Japan in the opera house Nov. 1, 1904. Of Russia you will see the grandeur of St. Petersburg, its palaces, parks, residence of the Czar, etc.; of Moscow you will glean an idea of its odd architecture, its antiquity, and its history. Bits of Siberia, descriptions of men, women and pansantry. Of Japan, the flower garden of the world, the beauty of the kingdom will be beautifully portrayed. You will see the architecture, hear its history, and hear of its people.

You will hear a clear statement of the vital issues at stake in the present war. Russia is fighting for the accomplishment of what she regards as her imperial destiny, for her commerce, her prestige, and her standing as a great oriental power. Japan, on the other hand, is battling for something still more vital—for her existence as an independent nation.

"When Women Love."

As long as the world goes round there will be conspiracies against goodness and virtue. In the play "When Women Love," written by William W. LaPoint, there is a story of heart interest that commends more than ordinary interest. A young girl weighted with the care of an invalid mother and younger sister, struggles against poverty and privation, is accused of crime, a man made in the same old image persecutes, accuses and in the end finds the old adage is only too true. "The Wages of Sin is Death." The play is presented by a strong cast, and the entire production is carried including some of the best scenic effects ever shown on the popular priced stage.

An English Baking Custom.

Formerly in Devonshire, England, the bakers, when they had finished, would weave a ring of wheat. Holding to this, the harvesters would form a circle and shout together, "Wee een!" (we end), after which one bore the ring to the house, and had the privilege of kissing the first maid he met.

THEY NEVER FAIL.

That is What They Say About Them In Barre. And It is, Therefore, Reliable.

Another proof. Some more evidence. Barre testimony to swell the long list of advocates who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of the claims made for that remarkable preparation:

Joseph Harrier, stone cutter, Graniteville, says: "I do not want the residents of Barre or anywhere this paper circulates to think that Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at E. A. Drown's drug store, absolutely cured me of kidney complaint, but I want them to thoroughly understand that in all my experience with medicine and prescriptions said to cure disordered kidneys, I never received anything like the assistance I obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills. I tried so many different remedies and obtained so little success that it was only after they were strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been cured of a similar case to me that I commenced the treatment. My back grew stronger, my general health better, and unless I brought any exertion on the muscles of the loins I did not feel the continual lameness and aching. This, to a man who has given up all expectations of ever being helped by the use of medicine, is of considerable value and greatly appreciated."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBum Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
